

The Amphitheatre

A spectacularly designed space for performance art and shows of all types. The large staircase provides a great format for the audience to intimately connect and interact with the art.

Ideal for hosting mini-concert series, roadshows, forums, panel discussions, stand up comedy, performance arts and TED talk style presentations.

The space is also designed to convert into a studio for photography and sound recording, perfect for production and live broadcasts.

The Amphitheatre

Venue dimensions

